CHAPTER 1 – GENERAL FURTHER SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATIONS

2.1 TOBACCO ADVERTISING

2.1.1 Motorsport Australia have re-issued Technical Appendix - Schedule K of the Motorsport Australia Manual, Item 9 as listed below.

9. TOBACCO ADVERTISING – PROHIBITION

Each Automobile must comply with the Public Health (Tobacco and Other Products) Act 2023.

The Public Health (Tobacco and Other Products) Act 2023 includes a prohibition on the display, publication, or promotion of any regulated tobacco product, including on any 5th category Automobile livery. Any Automobile livery that promotes or is likely to promote a regulated tobacco product must be removed or covered.

Where there is any dispute as to the eligibility of an Automobile for tobacco advertising signage, the onus of evidence to show that the livery does not promote and is not likely to promote a regulated tobacco product is the responsibility of the Competitor.

2.1.2 Supplementary Regulation, Chapter 2, Item 2.7.2.5 is replaced by the following.
Any Competitor with Tobacco Advertising on their vehicle must cover all components of the advertising which includes Brand and/or any Logo of the advertising.

2.1.3 The sole Judge of Fact in reference to any Tobacco Advertising on vehicles for the Event will be the Chief Scrutineer and/or his Nominee.

2.1.4 If any Competitors are in doubt read the NSW Public Health (Tobacco and Other Products) Act 2008 No 94 Dated 1st July 2026.
